Only respond to this job if these resonate with your values*

- Be respectful. Be respectful to clients, vendors, team members, equipment, and uniforms.
- Be polite. Be polite to clients, vendors, and other team members.
- Be honest. Honesty is very respectful to everyone involved. Sharing honest bad news is better than hiding the truth. Everyone makes mistakes and at times may not understand instructions or an explanation. Be honest so progress can be made.
- Be on time. Part of being polite and respectful is being on time; your team members are counting on you.
- Own your actions. Be accountable by realizing that mistakes and failing is part of learning and progressing. We trust you are working in the most honest and sincere manner and understand we all make mistakes.
- Do your job. Follow through and complete your job responsibilities; your team members and our customers are counting on you.
- Give and take. Flexibility is a two-way street. As a family business, we understand people need flexibility and we need our team members to show up strong when they are needed at work.
- Do what you say you're going to do when you say you're going to do it. The company, your team members, customers, vendors, and
